

"A river of living water", the water that continually flows "from the throne of God and of the Lamb" has been poured out on the Church. This is the water of the Spirit which quenches thirst and brings new life. It is especially necessary for us to direct our thoughts to the future that lies before us in order to take up with renewed enthusiasm the evangelizing mission of the Church. Pope John Paul II

CMSWR REGIONAL WORKSHOP

“Wellsprings of Hope: Women Religious in the New Evangelization”

Presented by Robert J. Spitzer, S.J.
President, Magis Institute

Saturday, April 26, 2014
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The day’s activities will include:
Conferences

Holy Mass and Confessions

Volleyball (back by popular demand)

*please bring sack lunch

(Boxed lunches available $5.00—must pre-order)

Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., is a Jesuit priest, philosopher, educator, author, speaker, and retired President of Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. Spitzer is founder and currently active as President of Magis Institute, a non-profit organization dedicated to public education concerning the complementary relationship among the varied disciplines of physics, philosophy, reason, and faith. He is also the Chief Education Officer of the Ethics and Performance Institute which delivers web-based ethics education to corporations and individuals. He is also President of the Spitzer Center of Catholic Organizations, which helps cultivate cultures of evangelization in Catholic dioceses, parishes, schools, and other organizations.

Sponsored by the Council of Major Superiors of Women Religious

To register for the event, please contact:

St. Joseph Campus of the Sacred Heart Retreat House
(626) 289-1353 ext. 200 • (626) 281-3546 fax
sjcprogcoordinator@carmelitesistersocd.com